

Able Seaman Audrey Chester Coultis

Royal Canadian Navy

Family Life:

Audrey was born to Millie Coultis and Herman Bowerman in June of 1918, at Tehkummah, Ontario.

He grew up on Manitoulin Island and Tobermory. Audrey attended school at South Baymouth on Manitoulin Island.

In February 1942, Audrey married Norine Hopkins and they had four children, Kyle, Danny, John and Mark.

Audrey worked as first Mate on the Cariboo Ferry Service on Manitoulin Island from 1941 to 1942, before he enlisted with the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve Service as Able Seaman.

He was the Lighthouse Keeper at Flower Pot Island for thirty-two years from 1950 until 1982 when he was to retired. Unfortunately, just two months from his retirement, Audrey would suffer a heart attack and die.

Decorations:
Pacific Star
Atlantic Star and Clasp
France and Germany Star
Italy Star
1939-1945 Star
Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and Clasp
War Medal 1939 –1945

Military Service:

Able Seaman Coultis enlisted at the Sudbury Recruiting Office in February 1942. He trained in Toronto, British Columbia, Quebec and Nova Scotia.

Able Seaman Coultis was assigned to HMCS Prince Robert and Thetford Mines as a Radar Operator. He was part of Escort group, 25L, of the Atlantic Coast Command, Operations, North West Atlantic based in Halifax, Nova Scotia. They escorted ships in Canadian waters with Frigates Ste. Therese, Joliette, La Hullose and Orkney.

In March of 1945, as part of Escort group 25L, HMCS Thetford Mines, HMCS La Hullose and HMCS Strathadam sunk U-boat 1302 in the Irish Sea. The U-boat was a VIIC type and all hands aboard were lost. Later that month Escort group 26L including the Frigate New Glasgow rammed U-boat 1003 in the Irish Sea. Frigates Thetford Mines and Strathadam would later pick up survivors. On September 18, 1945, Audrey was discharged due to

Lessons Learned:

Audrey always said, "Never give up!"